THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1865. NO. 100.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The following rates will be charged for all advertisements inserted in the Daily and Weekly Progress:

ONE SQUARE OF EIGHT LINES, OR LESS.

One day	$30 00	One week	$60 00
Two days	40 00	Two weeks	90 00
Three days	50 00	Three weeks	120 00
Four days	60 00	One month	240 00

Every square over eight lines, counts a square, and additional at the same rate. Advertisements (except Auction sales) for longer than three weeks will be charged at the same rate every insertion.

When sent by letter, the money must accompany the advertisement. Marriages, Deaths, Religious and other Notices charged as advertisements, and must be paid in advance.

New Advertisements.—T. D. Sledge—House for rent.

H. N. Brophy, Lumberton, N. C.—Garden seeds.

Lieut. Col. Hatch, Major and Chief Q. M.—Negro teamsters wanted.

Cheney & Lightfoot—Sheet Tin for sale.

See notice of public meeting at Mechanicsville this evening.

Deserters from the Confederate States Army will be received into the Federal service at Newbern, N. C., and will be transported to their homes in the North free of charge.

Gen. Sherman's army is now in Fayetteville, and the Cape Fear River is open to Wilmington.

Gen. Schofield's army is at Goldsboro'.

Gen. Terry's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Cox's army is at Newbern.

Gen. Hoke's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Bragg's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Hardee's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Johnston's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Lee's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Beauregard's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Longstreet's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Ewell's army is at Kinston.

Gen. A. P. Hill's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Stuart's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Early's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Pickett's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Pickett's army is at Kinston.

Gen. Pickett

DAILY PHOENIX.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

WATCH FOR THE GREEN BANK.

22 3130 33 ATLANTIC 3111

Transcribed by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Washington, D. C.

Washington, March 6, 1866.

Sir: I have the honor to report that the Atlantic 22 3130 33 was received at this Bureau on the 5th instant, and that the work of transcription was completed on the 6th instant.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

[Signed] W. M. Meredith,
Chief Clerk.

Hon. H. R. Revels,
Secretary of the Senate.

HEAD QUARTERS IN THE FIELD,
Phoenix, C. H., April 20, 1866.

Special Field Orders, No. 1.

I. Lieut. Col. Wm. H. Gibbes, 1st Regt. Infantry, is hereby appointed Provost Marshal of the District of Phoenix, and will at once enter upon the duties of his office.

II. The Provost Marshal will have charge of the Guard House, and the prisoners confined therein, and will be responsible for their safe keeping.

III. The Provost Marshal will have a daily report of prisoners made to him, and will keep a record of the same, which will be open to the inspection of the Commanding Officer at all times.

IV. The Provost Marshal will have charge of the Provost Guard, and will be responsible for its discipline and efficiency.

V. The Provost Marshal will have charge of the Provost Stables, and will be responsible for the proper care of the animals and property.

By order of Brig. Gen. A. Gibbes.
Official: Jno. R. Dow, A. A. G.

Phoenix Oath.—The Oath of Allegiance, as prescribed by the President, has been administered to over 15,000 persons in this district, and the Provost Marshal General reports that only twenty-one persons have refused to take it.

The Schools of Kentucky.—The Superintendent of Public Instruction reports that the Common Schools of Kentucky have been in operation during the past year, and that 150,000 children have been taught in them.

We have no doubt but that Dr. Mims will govern himself, in the use of the valuable medicine of his discovery, so as to prevent any one from becoming addicted to its use. Let it be used as a medicine, and not as a beverage.

The Hospitals have all been broken up, and the occupants sent to their homes.

Of course, others will be found to fill the vacancies thus created, and those who have been long sick will be sent to their homes.

Lieut. Hampton reports to the Provost Marshal of Columbia by the morning train.

Heavy duty may be done at the Government Mill in Columbia by one man.

The Hospitals have all been broken up, and the occupants sent to their homes.

Of course, others will be found to fill the vacancies thus created, and those who have been long sick will be sent to their homes.

We have no doubt but that Dr. Mims will govern himself, in the use of the valuable medicine of his discovery, so as to prevent any one from becoming addicted to its use. Let it be used as a medicine, and not as a beverage.

Heavy duty may be done at the Government Mill in Columbia by one man.

Lieut. Hampton reports to the Provost Marshal of Columbia by the morning train.

Mr. W. H. Wade, Jr., of Edgefield, has invented and patented a machine for cutting cord wood. One man can cut 15,000 pieces in a day with it.

The Schools of Kentucky.—The Superintendent of Public Instruction reports that the Common Schools of Kentucky have been in operation during the past year, and that 150,000 children have been taught in them.

Mr. W. H. Wade, Jr., of Edgefield, has invented and patented a machine for cutting cord wood. One man can cut 15,000 pieces in a day with it.

Phoenix Oath.—The Oath of Allegiance, as prescribed by the President, has been administered to over 15,000 persons in this district, and the Provost Marshal General reports that only twenty-one persons have refused to take it.

The Schools of Kentucky.—The Superintendent of Public Instruction reports that the Common Schools of Kentucky have been in operation during the past year, and that 150,000 children have been taught in them.